

Name: _____

Mind Map

Choose a main character from the new scenes of Romeo and Juliet. Write his/her name at the top of the mind map. Inside the open head, you should show what s/he is feeling and thinking in this part of the play. Use pictures, words, and color to show your ideas. Your mind map must include:

- one statements of what the character is feeling
- one statement of what the character is thinking
- one statement of what conflict the character is experiencing
- one statement to represent the character's main motivation in this scene (what does s/he want?)
- one quotation from the play that supports what your ideas about the character's feelings, thinking, conflict, and motivation.

