PB English 9 Summer Assignment

The literature for this summer is the novel To Kill a Mockingbird. They are receiving written instructions and a composition book to help them complete the assignment.

The most important support you can provide is to monitor their silent sustained reading habit. Time management will be the most important skill they develop in 9th grade.

Being able to read with focus for a minimum of 30 minutes at a time is essential.

PB Curriculum

- College prep – “honors level”
- There will be homework, budgeting time is essential
- IB challenge: means unit assessments are based on rubrics with specific skill level identification.
- Keep an open mind about grades; they change over time.
- No cells phones during class time.

Current pre-B Freshman advice to incoming pre-B Freshmen

- Know that you will work hard, but learn a lot!
- Use your class time effectively.
- Pay attention when taking notes.
- Ask questions and come in for extra help.
- Study as you go, don't procrastinate and only study right before the quiz/test
- Use a planner and time manage, especially if you're in sports/clubs.
- Realize that there is no late work accepted and the honor code will be upheld.
- Get enough sleep, find a stress relief – sports, etc.
- Homework/Study time:
 - Varies from 0-3 hours/night depending on day

Small group discussion

- What makes you nervous about your student's transition to high school?
- What are your expectations of the school or teachers regarding academic progress reports?
- List questions or concerns you have about CR or the PB curriculum on the poster paper provided.
